Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file is deemed to be objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes, and it promotes and supports bestiality. The image explicitly depicts a teenage girl involved in a sexual act with an animal. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention and is a reasonable limitation on the freedom of expression. The classification reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to limit the availability of publications that promote and support the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes, and publications that promote and support bestiality.
